Young Homemakers Week, May 11-17

Members of the Appomattox Chapter Young Homemakers of Virginia are joining other YHV members in the state in celebrating Young Homemakers of Virginia Week, May 11-17, 1975. A variety of activities has been planned by the local chapter, including a dinner meeting held at Maude's restaurant with Mr. Herbert Chambers, Investigator for the Virginia State Police, speaking to chapter members and their husbands on drug abuse. Many of the members attended church services with their families on Sunday and have planned activities to improve individual family life. Thursday has been set for cleaning and beautifying the community by planting flowers, cleaning debris and overgrowth in lawns and helping someone else to improve their surroundings. Spot announcements are being made by WTIX radio station during this week and exhibits have been placed in windows downtown and at the shopping center.

The Young Homemakers of Virginia organization is composed of women who want to improve personal, family and community life. CAMPBELL COUNTY RECREATION DEPARTMENT

The Campbell County Recreation Department will hold a ballet recital May 16, at the Rustburg Middle School gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

The recital will feature presentations by all the ballet classes in Campbell County sponsored by the Recreation Dept. The classes have been held for the past school year in Brookville, Rustburg, Concord and Brookneal. Partial funding for this program of classes was received from the Commission of Arts and Humanities in Richmond.

Some of the classes will be presenting floor and bar exercises in a lecture demonstration form. Others will be presenting short choreographed dances they have learned for this recital.

Two of the class instructors will present short solo dances. Mrs. Carol Tunkel will perform a short excerpt from "Swan Lake" which she has choreographed. Mrs. Kathy Smotrel will perform a short show number to music of the 1920 period. Mrs. Faun Van Orden of Bedford is also a class instructor.

We encourage all parents of these students to attend this recital. The public is also cordially invited.

Campbell County is planning a similar series of dance classes in all areas of the County beginning next fall. A two week workshop is also planned for sometime in June, 1975. Those who are interested in these future programs are cordially invited to attend the recital on May 16.

Local Citizens Help Protect The Past

Over a span of three weekends, and due to the efforts of a number of county citizens, a part of the past has been restored and protected.

A family cemetery was in poor condition when Mr. Thomas Caldwell of Pamplin contacted the Historical Park seeking suggestions for the cemetery's restoration. After visiting the site with Mr. Caldwell, Park Service historian Paul Ghioto agreed to coordinate the project.

On Saturday, April 5, 19 and 26 the tasks of clearing the property of trees, brush and debris, repairing tombstones, replacing topsoil, and fencing, fertilizing and seeding the site were performed. Boy Scouts Joe Johnson, Kenneth Holt and Jimmy Baxter assisted ranger Paul Ghioto and Westvaco forester, Andy Dreszer, in the work. A local businessman supplied various materials needed and Mr. Raymond Godsey loaned the project the use of his truck.

As part of its Bicentennial theme of "Heritage '76", the local Commission presents this type of project as a suggestion for local groups to undertake during the bicentennial years, 1975-1983.
